

Gathering Around the Cross

Mark 15:16-16:8

May 13, 2018

There were at least three groups gathered around the cross that afternoon

- Anger (15:29-32)
- Attraction (15:39)
- Adoration (15:40-41, 16:1-2)
  - By living on mission through their giving, the women were able to help the disciples in their going.
  - The women were courageous---last at the cross, first at the tomb
  - In Mark's gospel, the faith of women is often contrasted with the failures of men.
    - Every Christian woman, even one with kids, has a spiritual gift given to her to exercise for the benefit the entire church family, not just the nuclear family.
    - Every woman is called to glorify God in all she does, whether at home or at work, at church or at play.

There is success in failure (16:6-8; Acts 1:12-14)

- Mark shows us the power of God, which overcomes human defeat and disaster.
- Failure does not mean the end of discipleship or the defeat of God's purposes.
